

2016 HLHA Ballot

The Hawks Landing Homeowners Association solicited the interest of homeowners in serving on the HLHA Board or the Architectural Review Committee (ARC) for the 2016 calendar year. It is the responsibility of the three elected members of the Board to communicate and enforce the neighborhood restrictions and covenants and to manage the maintenance of common areas. It is the responsibility of the three elected members of the ARC to leverage their knowledge of building practices to review and approve or disapprove homeowner requests for improvements consistent with the standards and restrictions of the neighborhood.

Homeowner and/or Lot # _____

Please vote for up to 3 of the 4 candidates to serve on the HLHA Board. In alphabetical order,

Jason Danielson (incumbent Treasurer)

In addition to working with neighbors toward positive outcomes, communications and relations while enforcing our covenants and restrictions, as Treasurer, Jason would like to continue to be responsible for managing HLHA finances, purchasing goods and services at fair prices, providing timely payments to vendors, and maintaining professional relationships with banks and title companies on behalf of homeowners.

Karan Dhawal

Karan is a certified program manager at American Family Insurance with a passion for process improvements and delivery for large data management projects. The Dhawal family enjoys soccer and other outdoor activities. If selected on the board, Karan's approach would be to collect data from home owners on how to maintain and improve safety, security and family activities sharing (soccer families, ice hockey, basketball, etc.), future plans (avoid over crowding) and HL culture.

Shane Prichard (incumbent President)

As President for the last 3 years, living in Hawks Landing for 8 years and active in the community, Shane is vested with all decisions related to the homeowners' covenants, and enforcement of these covenants as needed. Shane will continue to work on behalf of all homeowners to uphold the consistency of our neighborhood, keep our homes safe, while having a positive impact when making decisions for the neighborhood.

Pete Worman (incumbent Vice President)

Pete will continue to build upon his experiences in negotiating conflicts and working towards improving services to the homeowners of Hawks Landing. Highlighting past efforts to establish the new police station on Midtown Road, his current agenda is to continue to solidify ongoing communication with adjoining associations to develop a stronger police presence in the neighborhood.

There are 3 candidates to serve on the ARC, all incumbents. In alphabetical order, they are Jeff Beckman, Dennis Grosse and Joe Krantz.
